

Education Day The Contemporary Museum Saturday, November 21, 2009

Portfolio Presentation

For Art Students and Artists

Saturday, November 21, 2009

11:30am and 1:30pm: Docent Tour of the exhibition, At 21: Gifts and Promised Gifts

10:30-11:30 Portfolio Preparation – TCM Curator of Exhibitions, Inger Tully, will discuss and show with examples how to submit your portfolio to museums and galleries. Space is limited. Reservations recommended. 237- 5230 qyoung@tcmhi.org

All day: Students, faculty and staff with school ID will receive free admission to the museum and enjoy special programming.

TCM's superb LIBRARY of contemporary art books and journals open
10:00am – 3:00pm

Teachers Workshop

For Teachers Grades K-8

Saturday, November 21, 2009

1:00pm - 4:00pm

This Teachers Workshop is designed to enhance a teacher's comfort level with and knowledge of contemporary art. It will explore the different ways of looking at and talking about art with children. Through works of art on view we will identify common themes in contemporary art and how those themes are relevant to students today.

1:00pm – 2:00pm Welcome. Tour of the exhibition, At 21: Gifts and Promised Gifts with TCM Curator of Education, Quala-Lynn Young. Using the artwork on view this walkthrough will present different ways of talking about contemporary art with students grades k-8.

2:00pm-3:00pm Demonstration of and participation in hands on art project that can be taken into the classroom with TCM outreach educator, Shanda Freitas.

3:00pm-4:00pm Interactive Storytelling based on artwork with master storyteller, James McCarthy.

Reservations Required: 237-5217 qyoung@tcmhi.org

